- City Council Report – Duff O'Dell

Tonight is the first Council meeting for Mr. Leal.

Mayor Tate and family are on a cruise; Mayor Pro Tem will preside.

There are several presentations coming soon.

Consultants brought in to discuss the parking situations in Grapevine.

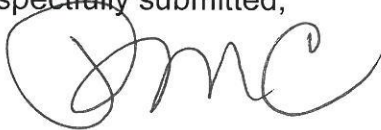

P&Z will meet the third Tuesday.

Janice Roberson was added to the Walk of Honor and is the first woman.

- Housing Authority report – Teri Rhodes-/Cantu
No significant new news.
Next meeting is the fourth week in June.
Current backlog for housing is between 100-120.
- GRACE report – Christine Szymaszek
117 clients in the Friends and Family Program (55 and over).
57 volunteers with a waitlist for others to onboard.
Groceries were delivered to 78 households (85 individuals).
Christine attended two workshops, one of which was Social Security/Medicare/Medicaid focused and very helpful.
For clients, she focuses on two things: looking at budget and looking at insurance, making sure they get the best information and help. Needs met.
Currently trying to help a 62-year-old man diagnosed with Hepatitis C and liver cancer. The battle to get his meds is tough. Did anyone have any ideas?
Duff mentioned GRACE helped with tax preparations and is about to kick off Feed Our Children for the summer.
- The REC report – Trent Kelley
Summer has arrived; pools are open and REC camps are in full swing.
June 8 at Oak Grove: Softball All Stars will be playing if anyone needs local entertainment.
Kevin Mitchell added that lake parks are closed and fireworks are canceled indefinitely.
- Active Adults report – Patrece Coblentz
Active Adults is adjusting to camp schedules making sure classes have a place to meet or a field trip to go on when camps need the classroom space.
Active Adults will be looking for indoor trips now that the warmer weather has arrived. Field trip to the Nerf Battlefield in Denton this week.

6. This meeting adjourned at 4:14 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Patrece Coblentz, Active Adults Recreation Coordinator
