Grapevine Police Investigate Auto-Pedestrian Fatality Accident

GRAPEVINE, Texas - Grapevine Police are investigating a deadly accident involving a pedestrian and a pickup.

At approximately 6:15 a.m. on Friday, June 14, the driver of the pickup was exiting onto Glade Road from southbound SH-121 when his truck hit a man standing in the exit ramp. The driver stopped and called 911, but the victim died at the hospital.

A witness says the victim had run out of gas, and was refilling his gas tank when the other driver crashed into him. The victim did not have any identification with him. Police have since learned he was driving a stolen car.

The Tarrant County Medical Examiner will determine the victim's identity. The driver of the pickup is not facing any charges.
