Grapevine Police Arrest Man for Improper Photography

GRAPEVINE, Texas - Grapevine Police arrested a man accused of recording cell phone video under a woman's dress while she was shopping.

On Tuesday, October 8, 2019, at approximately 5:30 p.m., a woman was shopping at the Walmart in the 1600 block of W. SH-114 when she took a step backwards and bumped into a man. She noticed he was bent over with his cell phone under her dress. The man walked away, and the victim called 911 while following the man to the front of the store. Her description to dispatchers helped police identify the man in the parking lot. The victim additionally took a photo of the suspect with her phone, and shared it with officers.

Officers arrested 57-year-old Leroy Grove for Improper Photography or Visual Recording. He was transported to the Tarrant County Jail on Thursday, October 10, 2019. Bond is set at $1,500.

Detectives discovered recordings of multiple victims on Grove's phone that appear to have been taken in different locations. Anyone who believes they have had contact with Grove and feels they could be a victim are encouraged to call Grapevine Police on the non-emergency line at: 817.410.8127.
